FAB FASHION
COLORING BOOK

Create Your Own Style!

PRESTEL
MUNICH - LONDON - NEW YORK

Do you love clothes, shoes, bags ...

... and anything you can wear? Then this is the book for you! Grab your colored pencils and crayons, a pair of scissors, and some glue and take a journey through the fabulous world of fashion. You'll get to know the fashions of the past, discover elegant creations by famous designers, and find accessories that range from the graceful evening bag to the traditional folk costume. But most fun of all, you can design your own looks for almost any occasion.

The beautiful models and colorful swatches of fabric are ready ...

... so what are you waiting for?

Fashion can be . . . beautiful, wild, entertaining,
priceless, adventurous, mysterious,
unique, crazy, playful, elegant . . .

frilly like a Rococo gown?

What do you think fashion is?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

unadorned like a dress by Marc Jacobs?

Good morning!

RING RING
RING RING

It's time to get up and,
as always, you have ...

My best friend

Cover your closet door with pictures of your favorite stars. If you cut along the dotted lines you'll be able to open your closet.

... NOTHING TO WEAR!

A million T-shirts, pants, sweaters,
skirts, dresses, cardigans ...

In other words: gaping emptiness!

What do you have in your closet and dresser besides socks and underwear? Let's take an inventory:

___ t-shirts

___ blouses

___ sweaters

___ jackets

___ pants

___ skirts

Throw everything you don't like in the laundry basket and fill the closet with your dream clothes: neatly folded or stuffed in any old way. There's no one nitpicking here

School uniforms can simplify life. But only when they're stylish ...

Would you like to go to school dressed like this?
Francis Alleyne painted these two students in their famous Eton college uniforms around 1780.

Or do you like
twenty-first-century school uniforms better?
Draw yourself in the uniform, then you can see how you like it.

Color in their clothing however you'd like and give them some fellow students.
